

The Life & Loves of Elizabeth Graeme

Wendy Long Stanley, author of the new historical fiction book based on the life of Elizabeth Graeme Fergusson, will lead us through the life, loves, and losses of Graeme Park’s Elizabeth Graeme Fergusson. Left heartsick and lost after a broken engagement to William Franklin, Elizabeth turned to writing, travel, and a glittering social life for solace, before eventually entering into a secret marriage to Loyalist Henry Hugh Fergusson that would change the course of her life forever. Her book will be available for purchase and signing after the talk.

Wendy Long Stanley is a writer and historian who loves to write about the women that history has forgotten. Her first novel, The Power to Deny, about the extraordinary life of Elizabeth Graeme Fergusson of Graeme Park, won a 1st Place Blue Ribbon Award in the GOETHE Book Awards for post-1750s Historical Fiction. In addition to writing fiction, Wendy is completing a Master's Degree in Public History from La Salle University. She lives in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania with her husband and two daughters.
