

October 27 – Haunted Story Time & Trick-or-Treating

Kid will trick-or-treat through each room of the Keith House while our resident witches, ghosts, pirates, and goblins read a progressive story. Costumes encouraged.

November 30 – Christmas in the Colonies

As you tour the rooms of the Keith House, costumed actors will present different cultural holiday traditions to you – you may recognize some in our modern celebrations or discover something new. The tour will also feature the Tapestry Historic Dance Ensemble performing traditional parlor dances, Noah Lewis as Ned Hector, telling you about the life of a free black soldier, and Santa will be here for selfies with the kids.

December 8 – Cookies & Cocoa with Santa & Mrs. Claus

Enjoy cookies, cocoa and other sweet treats with Santa, do a Christmas craft, hear a story read by Mrs. Claus, and take a photo with Santa or Santa and Mrs. Claus (bring your own camera/phone) for your holiday card.

2024 Event Calendar

February 17 – The “Dead” of Winter

A theatrical, historically-based séance in the style of the early 20th century when “mediums” and “psychics” took advantage of those for whom death was a very near experience by using trickery and magic to convince them they were in contact with their beloved. Snow Date: 2/24/24.

March 10 – Pennsylvania’s Birthday – Free Open House

Join the Friends of Graeme Park as we celebrate the founding of Pennsylvania with a free tour of the Keith House. This annual statewide event commemorates the granting of the Pennsylvania Charter to William Penn.

April 14 – Tea with Louisa May Alcott

Join Louisa May Alcott in 1868 as she visits her birth state on a speaking tour on the heels of the surprise success of Little Women. Includes a reading of selections from Alcott’s works and discussion of her life and artistic influences. After the presentation, enjoy and afternoon tea with hot or iced tea.

May 1 – Lunch & Learn: “The Treason of Betsy Ross” - Author Talk with Wendy Long Stanley

Join author Wendy Long Stanley as she presents the subject of her newest book, Betsy Ross, during her early life and marriage to John Ross. Set against the backdrop of the coming Revolution, this Quaker girl had to choose between her family’s peaceful ways and supporting her husband’s involvement with the resistance. Wendy’s first book, “The Power to Deny” was the subject of an earlier Lunch & Learn on Elizabeth Graeme. Enjoy a continental breakfast, author talk, and a lunch buffet.

May 12 – Mothers’ Day Breakfast

Treat the Moms in your life to a breakfast buffet in our large event tent, followed by a tour of the historic Keith House.

June 1 – Horsham Day – Free Tours

Join us on Horsham Day from 10 am to 2 pm for a free tour of the Keith House, Horsham’s only National Historic Landmark. Tours on the hour.

June 16 – Free Father’s Day Tours

In honor of Father’s Day, we’ll be offering free tours for all men 18+

July 4 – “Good Old Summertime” Independence Day Ice Cream Social Celebration

Celebrate independence with our colonial dressed volunteers as they read the Declaration aloud. There will be free ice cream and the Keith House will be open for tours after the presentations.

July 20 – The “Dead” of Summer

A theatrical, historically-based séance in the style of the early 20th century when “mediums” and “psychics” took advantage of those for whom death was a very near experience by using trickery and magic to convince them they were in contact with their beloved.

August 11 – Living History Sunday

Join us for a look at Colonial life. Hands-on activities for kids.

August 25 – Annual Meeting of Friends & Volunteer Appreciation Dinner

Annual Membership Meeting of the Friends of Graeme Park. Following the meeting, members and volunteers and their families are invited to join us for a Volunteer Appreciation Dinner.

September 15 – Living History Sunday—Pirates

Join us for a look at life as a pirate. Hands-on activities of kids.

October 2 – Lunch & Learn: Alice Paul

Chris Flynn from the League of Women Voters will present a first person interpretation of Alice Paul. Enjoy a continental breakfast, lecture, and a lunch buffet. Tours of the historic Keith House will also be available after lunch.

October 11 & 18 – A Walk Among the Graeme Ghosts

Join us for a spooky Halloween immersive theater experience in the Keith House, long rumored to be Horsham’s most haunted house.
