

October 8 – Lunch & Learn: History’s Mysteries

What They Didn't Teach You in High School About the Revolutionary War and Colonial Era Many people love to read historical fiction. But, this is historical reality. Legends and lore have become a significant part of American history of the Revolutionary War and the colonial era. Herb Kaufman will help us separate fact from fiction.

October 17 & 24 – A Walk Among the Graeme

Ghosts—Join us for a spooky Halloween immersive theater experience in the Keith House, long rumored to be Horsham’s most haunted house.

November 1 – Paranormal Investigation

—Join us on All Souls' Night, when the veil is thin and the spirits are nigh for a paranormal investigation of the Keith House at Graeme Park. A rare opportunity for a lengthy investigation of all three floors and the summer kitchen. Bring your own equipment and apps, or share with our investigators.

November 29 – Christmas in the Colonies

As you tour the rooms of the Keith House, costumed actors will present different cultural holiday traditions to you – you may recognize some in our modern celebrations or discover something new. The tour will feature the Tapestry Historic Dance Ensemble performing traditional parlor dances.

December 7– Cookies & Cocoa with Santa & Mrs. Claus

Enjoy cookies, cocoa and other sweet treats with Santa, do a Christmas craft, hear a Christmas story read aloud, and take a photo with Santa and Mrs. Claus (bring your own camera/phone) for your holiday card.

2025 Event Calendar

March 8 – The “Dead” of Winter

A theatrical, historically-based séance in the style of the early 20th century when “mediums” and “psychics” took advantage of those for whom death was a very near experience by using trickery and magic to convince them they were in contact with their beloved.

March 9 – Pennsylvania’s Birthday – Free Tours

Join the Friends of Graeme Park as we celebrate the founding of Pennsylvania with a free tour of the Keith House. This annual statewide event commemorates the granting of the Pennsylvania Charter to William Penn.

April 6 – Tea with Harriot Stanton Blatch

Join us for a presentation on Harriot Stanton Blatch followed by a tea with sandwiches and sweets. Harriot Stanton Blatch was the daughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and an advocate for women’s suffrage in her own right.

April 30 – Lunch & Learn: The Doan Gang: Outlaws of the Revolution

—Join us for a waffle breakfast, catered hot lunch, and lecture on the Doan Gang of Bucks County, presented by the Mercer Museum in conjunction with their special exhibit. The Doan Gang was a group of British loyalists, the most notorious members being five brothers and one cousin from the Doan family of Plumstead, PA.

May 11 – Mothers’ Day Breakfast

Treat the Moms in your life to a breakfast buffet in our large event tent, followed by a tour of the historic Keith House.

June 7 – Horsham Day – Free Tours

Join us on Horsham Day from 10 am to 3 pm for a free tour of the Keith House, Horsham’s only National Historic Landmark. Tours on the hour.

June 15 – Free Father’s Day Tours

In honor of Father’s Day, we’ll be offering free tours for all men 18+ at 12:30, 1:30, and 2:30.

July 4 – 4th of July Celebration

Celebrate independence with our colonial dressed volunteers as they read the Declaration aloud. There will be free ice cream and other entertainment and the Keith House will be open for free tours after the presentations.

July 12 – The “Dead” of Summer

A theatrical, historically-based séance in the style of the early 20th century when “mediums” and “psychics” took advantage of those for whom death was a very near experience by using trickery and magic to convince them they were in contact with their beloved.

August 17 – Tea with Louisa May Alcott

Join Louisa May Alcott in 1868 as she visits her birth state on a speaking tour on the heels of the surprise success of Little Women. Includes a reading of selections from Alcott’s works and discussion of her life and artistic influences. After the presentation, enjoy and afternoon tea with sandwiches and sweets.

August 24 – Annual Meeting of Friends & Volunteer Appreciation Dinner

Annual Membership Meeting of the Friends of Graeme Park. Following the meeting, members and volunteers and their families are invited to join us for a Volunteer Appreciation Dinner.

September 11 – Dedication of the Johnson’s Willow

—Join us and our special guests from the Samuel Johnson Society in England as we dedicate the Johnson Willow—a descendent of the willow that inspired Elisabeth’s Odes to the Litchfield Willow and which she hoped would someday grace our shores.

September 28 – Haunted Story Time & Trick-or-Treating —Kid will trick-or-treat through each room of the Keith House while our resident witches, ghosts, pirates, and goblins read a story. Costumes encouraged.

October 5 – Witches’ Tea Party—You’ve been summoned! Dress in your witchy finery and fly yourself out to Graeme Park for a Witches’ Tea Party and talk on historic witches. Sand-witches and delicacies will be served along with a selection of our finest brews.
